Oxford County Advertiser.
FRIDAY, AUGUST 13, 1887.

NORWAY AND VICINITY.
The Grov has commenced work on his dwelling house.
Samuel Mathews is building a house on Paris Street.
Wood's mixed spices at C. N. Tabbs & Co. School money will be apportioned Saturday.
Business will shortly be booming at the corn factory.
Use Brown's Instant Relief for Pain for sale by all druggists.
Frank Howe and lady of Boston, are visiting in town.
Mrs. Lucilla Cummings and daughter are visiting at Bridgton.
Canned goods and fruit of all kinds at Twombly's are the post-office.
Mrs. John M. Jewett is visiting friends at Newburyport, Mass. did home.
Don't forget to call and see what Miss Prynce finds in Boston this week.
Mrs. J. Wesley Smith and children go to Montreal, Saturday, visiting for a few weeks.
Two car loads of Pillsbury's best flour just received at C. B. Cummings' upper grist mill.
Mrs. W. C. Leavitt and daughter June returned home from their visit to Deerling last Saturday evening.
Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Tibbetts and two daughters of Fryeburg, are visiting at C. B. Cummings'.
Cabinet makers & box-makers settle up, steamed, adressed, non-hollow or better, the best thing in the market. B. B. Cummings, agent.
Alphonso Allen has moved from the new granite block to Walter Anderson's house on Greenland Ave.
A. G. Hovey, of Hanover, made us a pleasant call Wednesday. He was in town to witness the game of base ball.
We have our new loading bridge in position and all ready to do job painting of all kinds at low rates.
A. C. Greene went to the city taking a well earned vacation at his former home in Shelburne, N. H.
Sam & Colby are visiting Hanover, Andover and Haverhill in about 10 days.
A pair of lady's black gloves have been found which the owner can have by calling at the ADVERTISER'S office.
A child's primer does not have been found on the street. The owner can have it by calling at the ADVERTISER'S office.
Mrs. Ella F. Brooks and Winnie Evans of Portland have been stopping at the Brooks' farm on Pike's Hill for a few days.
Cerebral strokes just what you want for breakfast, can be got at C. B. Cummings'.
Cabin Richardsons, Albert Furnum and others from Crockett's Ridge are building a camp in Wrafton to be occupied during their hunting season.
We would like copies of the ADVERTISER of Dec. 31, 1886, March 18 and April 29. Will not send one of our readers sent them for.

The Stone Brothers, who for many years past have owned the Norway, Whiteford and North Lowell saws, now have sold their route to Wm. T. Greenough of North Waterford. Wm. H. Kilgore will hold the line for a few days.

Visit Angus Towne's and try a glass of our champagne—non-alcoholic drink, 20¢.
David S. Andrews shows us bullets which were saved out of lumber the last winter at his mill in Virginia. The log came from White Star Church. He says it is nothing uncommon to saw open bullet in logs. It does not hurt the saw much but when they run the saw into it is rather damaging that has grown into the tree is rather dangerous. He says this has occurred at his mill and came near ruining the saw.
J. A. Bolster's large two story house situated in a good locality on Willow street on Whittman Street, will soon be snapped up by somebody. Mr. Bolster has built a large number of houses since he moved into the village and is still at the business. He has the foundation laid and lumber for the construction down in his section, which will be erected at low prices.
Call at C. N. Tabbs & Co. and get some notices.
